INTERROGATORIES

1. Identify all persons, other than those already listed in Part A of Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures dated March 15, 2022, who you believe have knowledge of relevant facts and identify, including for those already listed in Part A of Plaintiff's Initial Disclosures dated March 15, 2022, the issues upon which you believe they have knowledge.

Those persons have knowledge surrounding their intent to contribute as reflected in their verified statements.

2. sg 15
9/21/22 Virden

Viriden objects to the extent this interrogatory presumes that a candidate can or must trace the source of funds for any given campaign or political expenditure to a particular category of funds that are commingled in a campaign account. Texas law does not require candidates to use or designate any particular accounting method or to trace funds in the manner suggested. Viriden had less than $3,800 remaining in the account after the December 2020 runoff election, as stated in her Complaint. Compl. ¶ 32. Subsequent funds deposited into the account are reflected in her campaign finance reports, which also reflect whether funds were from contributions or a loan from personal funds, or if Viriden made a reportable expenditure from her own personal funds (not already deposited into the campaign account). Viriden provides the campaign finance reports covering the requested period, which reflects the information responsive to the request.

3. For the period between December 16, 2020, and November 8, 2021, identify any campaign activity in which you participated.

Response:

April 9, 2021 – Viriden was invited to and did speak at Westminster Austin Senior Living about City of Austin issues and the May 1, 2021 ballot measures.

4. For the period between October 17, 2017, and December 16, 2021, identify any campaign activity in which you participated, excluding any campaign activities directly in connection with your 2020 campaign for the City Council District 10 seat.

Response:

Viriden collected signatures for the Save Austin Now camping ban petitions during June-July 2020 and January 2021.

5. Identify any direct campaign expenditures by you between October 17, 2017, and December 16, 2021.

Response:

Viriden did not make any “direct campaign expenditures” during the relevant period.

First Supplemental Response: AustinHaus Realty paid for advertising identified under Interrogatory No. 7, below.

6. Identify any campaign contributions by you to a political committee between October 17, 2017, and December 16, 2021.

Response:

Viriden made several campaign contributions to candidates in recent elections, and will supplement this response by April 22, 2022.

First Supplemental Response:

Viriden made the following “campaign contributions” under the Texas Election Code:

- $45 to Texas Realtors PAC in September 2020
- $30 to Save Austin Now PAC in March 2021
- $100 to Justin Berry in December 2021
- $100 to Ellen Troxclair in December 2021
- $400 to Rupal Chaudhari (for Travis County Judge) in late 2021

7. Identify any campaign contributions or campaign expenditures by you between October 17, 2017, and December 16, 2021, in support of a measure, or the proponents of a measure, intended to be included as a proposition on a City of Austin ballot.

Response:

Viriden paid for radio advertising on KLBJ regarding certain measures on the May 1, 2021 Austin ballot.

First Supplemental Response:

AustinHaus Realty paid for radio advertising on KLBJ regarding Proposition A on the November 2, 2021 Austin ballot. These advertisements cost $475 in the aggregate.

8. Please describe any monetary damages (nominal and compensatory) to you personally since October 17, 2017, proximately caused by the City of Austin charter and statutory provisions you challenge, as described in ¶ 1 of the Joint Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) Report And Proposed Scheduling Order (Doc. 43) in this case.

Response:

Viriden is entitled to nominal damages for the violation of her speech and associational rights, even in the absence of any actual damages. Carey v. Piphus, 435 U.S. 247 (1978). Viriden does not seek any monetary damages in her personal capacity other than nominal damages.

9. Please describe any monetary damages (nominal and compensatory) to you as a candidate since October 17, 2017, proximately caused by the City of Austin charter and statutory provisions you challenge, as described in ¶ 1 of the Joint Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) Report And Proposed

47. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin May 30, 2021 BIG Thanks Ed Fudman for making sure in 2020 we ran on a 20% Homestead Exemption. Fun radio ad @ <https://t.co/SXvBwtbXlr> on @NewsRadioKLBj reminding the Mayor of 20% HEx he ran on in 2014. I support Item 71 (20%) & Item 72 on this week's Council agenda. 50. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 2, 2021 It should be about 'Core Municipal Services,' not trying to solve EVERY problem of the WORLD. "We have a spending problem, not a money problem." - @ToddAndDonKLBj Just heard that on KLBj in response to Alter's saying we (#ATXCouncil) "need more money." 🙄🙄🙄 #taxandspend
51. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 2, 2021 I'LL JUST LEAVE THIS HERE. From yesterday's #ATXGov presentation to #ATXCouncil. Proposed costs of "a (1) hotel as a (1) protective lodge." They're calling this "bridge housing" not "permanent supportive housing" as part of the city's response to Prop. B, $4.2M for 100 people: <https://t.co/UnmyVtN7Af>
52. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 2, 2021 Had a great time today working with a super sharp Cooper Baehr on his project dealing with the homeless issue. <https://t.co/kXzv4lrZ1>
53. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 4, 2021 Totally disagree with 'guaranteed income' by the #ATXCouncil. It has NO place in responsible municipal budgeting. Municipal governments do not issue currency and money does not grow on trees. <https://t.co/HJHA1GGHbm> via @NewsRadioKLBj #TXLege
54. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 5, 2021 Rank Choice Voting? There were 5 bills in the #TXLege dealing with the legal name "preferential voting." They all died. RCV/preferential voting requires action by the Secretary of State to prescribe procedures and that's probably not going to happen. ONWARD TO THE RUNOFF!

56. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 21, 2021 As Mayor of Austin beginning in 2022, I'm going to lead and keep Council focused on what we are charged to do: competently manage and fund core municipal services, such as APD/AFD/EMS, water, waste, electricity, roads, and parks. (1 of 3)
57. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 21, 2021 Regarding Muny, and our parks & nature preserves, there's a new, bona fide "Parks Lady" in town - me! 58. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Jun 21, 2021 Let's maximize our attention to those things and minimize the virtue signaling resolutions overwhelming our City Manager. Let's do this in 2022! 🙌🙌🙌 (3 of 3)

83. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Aug 12, 2021 The article does not explain the 'estimated' $119M a year is from a false assumption of 2.35 officers per 1,000, SAN Prop. 84. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Aug 12, 2021 Local #TAX increases on dramatically increased property values will be a top issue in the 2022 election. Count on it. Passed on immediately to renters. #ATXCouncil

85. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Aug 14, 2021 The ever rising property taxes are what drove them out, John-Michael, but the 'all or nothing' dysfunctional #ATXCouncil's inability to find compromise in addressing permitting and zoning improvements did not help either.

90. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Aug 30, 2021 KEY QUOTE: "Austin has one of the highest property taxes in the U.S., with #ATXCouncil raising taxes by 100% over a 13-yr period." High property tax increases result directly in higher monthly rents. Record supply is being built in the Austin MSA.

91. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Aug 30, 2021 DISAPPOINTING: Adler's State of the City Address was defensive, accusatory, backward looking and revisionist. Spoke nothing of some of the big unaddressed policy issues. Shot of the small audience: <https://t.co/P5wPJJu22mh>

92. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Sep 1, 2021 I DO NOT agree that the city should designate new areas for outdoor public camping! Only Camp Esperanza. That's it. 96. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Sep 21, 2021 Lady Bird Lake needs a SERIOUS CLEANING UP. Skimmers, etc. It's pathetic and grotesque. 100. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Oct 21, 2021 The City of Austin is notorious for not spending taxpayers' money on basic maintenance but instead spending it on all kinds of non-core social services, all the while saying there's not enough money to not only budget but fully APPROPRIATE & STAFF core svcs such as @Austin Police <https://t.co/rEsKwkVSVr> <https://t.co/VqB08soXKs>

101. Jennifer Virden @Jennifer4Austin Nov 1, 2021 PROGRESS...just in time for the election! 11. Identify any political advertising by you in connection with the November 2022 General Election for the period between December 16, 2020, and November 8, 2021.

Response:

All of the communications identified in response to interrogatory 10 constitute “political advertising” under Texas law. This includes the Facebook and Twitter posts, because even those posts not directly discussing Virden’s candidacy or a measure bear her campaign handle at the top of the post. See Tex. Elec. Code § 251.001(16); see also 1 Tex. Admin. Code § 26.1.
